

Spring Term 2, Year 4, Computing, Website Design

Subject specific Vocabulary		Images/Diagrams/Maps	Important Knowledge
Collaboration	Working with others to achieve a specific goal		To know that a website is a collection of pages that are all connected. To know that websites usually have a homepage and subpages as well as clickable links to new pages, called hyperlinks. To know that websites should be informative and interactive
Content	All information and media contained in something for example a webpage
Design	To make, draw or write plans for something
Embed	Media files which can be stored and viewed within a webpage
Feature	The individual parts that make up something
Header	Text at the top of the page
Hyperlink	A link commonly used in a web page or document to direct you to another website or file
Plan	An idea about how to do something in future	Writing opportunities/ Enrichment opportunities
Tab	A way of opening and organising multiple websites in a single window on an internet browser	English: Write clear, concise content for webpages. Art & Design: Create images, logos, and graphics for the site. PSHE / Citizenship: Include safe online content and model good digital behaviour. Science/Topic: Build websites to present research or project work.

Presentation	Assessment
1	To explore the features of Google Sites.	Using a range of features in Google Sites and record progress. Using most skills from the checklist on their website	Demonstrating all checklist skills on their website as well as additional features
2	To plan content for a collaborative webpage.	Understanding the features of Google Sites and using these to build a web page. Creating a clear plan for their web page and beginning to create it	Starting to create their web page, already showing many of the features identified on the checklist and sticking to the chosen styles selected by the class
3	To create a webpage as part of a collaborative class website.	Creating a professional looking web page with useful information and a clear style, which is easy for the user to read and find information from. Using many of the features of Google Sites	Producing additional content by adding subpages with further information as well as including more advanced features, e.g.: relevant YouTube video content embedded in their page
4	To plan and create a website.	Creating a clear plan by referring back to their checklist to include a range of features. Starting to build a website based on own designs	Creating a clear plan as well as making progress on creating a site with a clear style throughout and considering information that the audience would find useful and interesting
5	To create and evaluate a website.	Creating four web pages with a range of features in their website	Creating at least four web pages with a range of features and a consistent style throughout their site