

Spring 1- REC - I am Special Knowledge Organiser

Why are we all different and special?

Subject specific Vocabulary		Images/Diagrams/Maps	Important Knowledge
God	Christians believe God made and loves everyone.		Christians believe that they are fearfully and wonderfully made by God. Christians believe that each one of us is unique, special and loved. Christians refer to God as the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Christians believe that Jesus is God's son. Muslims have 99 different names for God. Names are very important. Our own names, names of our family and friends, and the names people of faith give to God.
Love	A strong feeling of care and kindness.
Father	A male parent. Christians call God their Father.
Unique	One of a kind. There is no one else just like you.
Key Questions What are my favourite things? Why are names important? Why do Christians believe that all people are special in the eyes of God? Why do Christians believe that God is their heavenly father? What are the names that Christians and Muslims give to God? How do we know that we are special in the eyes of God?		Writing/Provision/ Enrichment opportunities Write the names of family members on a family tree. Let the children take photos of each other and create a wall display that introduces the class to each other and visitors. Hello my name is and I like.....

	☐	☐ talk about themselves, their likes, dislikes, and what makes them special. ☐ talk about feelings they have experienced. ☐ talk about the names Christians give to God. ☐ talk about Muslim prayer beads and how they are used.	☐ Can reflect on what makes them the same as others and what makes them unique, recognizing everyone has both similarities and differences. ☐ Can observe and comment on how their preferences (likes/dislikes) might shape their friendships or communities, e.g., "I like to read, my friend likes drawing — that's why we can't always play the same games, but we're still friends." ☐ Can articulate why they are special in relation to wider communities, such as their family, class, or faith context — e.g., "I help my mum at home so that's something special about me."
